What you will learn

Horizon Hospice, established as Chicago's first hospice in 1978, presents a two-hour clinical seminar on family dynamics in Latino culture led by Dr. Sara Schwarzbaum. Topics include:

- The Latino family life cycle
- Family and societal expectations
- Widows in a patriarchal society and effects on family
- Family therapy and clinical interventions

In addition, Lydia Huante, director of education for the Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum, will lead a tour of the noted Day of the Dead exhibit, teaching about Latino cultural traditions of mourning.
